INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the Poy! Poy!™ Cup Championships!

*Come right on down and take a seat
for the greatest spectacle in the land.
It's Poy Poy™, the challenging game of *Contestants from all over the land will be competing for big cash prizes

and the honour of becoming the Poy
Poy™ Cup Champion.*

I would like to introduce you to this party game. The rules are easy; players can pick up any items from the

by throwing items at other players.
Each player can use the "Psyche glove" which will give him or her great powers and techniques.

The POY! POY! Champion will receive a huge cash prize donated by a sponsor! Do your best!

Logs roll over when thrown. It is possible to attack from behind a pile of logs.

DESERT

You can use fossils as a defence to hide behind. This is a windy stage so players can't move around easily.

ICEBERG

This stage is made from ice so it is slippery and difficult to move around on. There are penguins around the stage – they land regularly then slide about at high speed trying to attack the players.

MOAILAND

Items: rocks, wooden boxes, boulders, stone statue, missiles

There are stone statues on the stage. If you throw things at them they may get angry, in which case they will attack you. Sometimes, though, they get angry for no apparent reason and will attack you.

ROBOTS

Items: rocks, wooden boxes, robots, missiles

There is a robot in the middle of this stage – it is moving about and firing from a laser rifle (you can stop this if you throw a missile and hit the robot).

PARK

Items: rocks, wooden boxes, dinosaurs, missiles
The night stage is randomly lit. There is an innocent-looking dinosaur's egg in the centre of the stage which if broken or even touched, will be transformed into a dangerous dinosaur.

PRACTICE

Items: rocks, wooden boxes, missiles

There are no obstacles and no time limits here. The aim of this stage is for you to get as much practice as you need before tackling the real stages.
